Logan, Nov. 30.—Roy Egbert, fullback on this year's team, was elected captain of the Aggies for next year, yesterday. The only man mentioned as a rival to Egbert was Quarterback Fenn, but the latter withdrew on account of having

There has been a great deal of talk here about a new coach for the Aggies, but it is dying out and the men who were criticising Campbell a few days ago, are admitting that it wasn't all his faoit that the Aggies did not win the championship this year.

That coast trip was the undoing of Campbell's men. The players were battered up, and they had no time to thoroughly learn their game as there was little or no time for practice.

Campbell's personality has won him many friends here. He is first of all a gentleman and then a sportsman, but not a "sport." For that reason he stands better here than a coach would who could win games for the school, but would be open to question as to his personal habits or football methods. Campbell is clean, and being an intelligent man, will learn something from this year's experience, his friends say, and they unhesitatingly predict that he will make—the Aggies champions next year.

Britt's Victories Smell.

Britt's victory over Corbett and Gans carry a strong taint of suspicion with them—which is now even admitted on the coast—and Mr. Britt will now have a chance to redeem himself. He has said that he will meet Nelson next month and he will probably force Neison to fight at 133, but this will not bother the Dane any as he will be willing to fight the Californian at any old weight.

Nelson's apward career began in Salt Lake with his victory over Spider Weish. Coming here from Chicago he was little thought of in the puglistic world and had hard work to get on in a preliminary in the windy city. Weish was a great favorite on the coast and when Nelson beat him it gave the Dane a chance to get a fight out there. Since that time Canole Herrera and Hanlon has gone down hefore his battling style of fighting and by defeating Corbett he is acknowledged one of the greatest fighters of his weight in the world.

Omaha, Neb., Nov. 39.—The Bee says; It is reported that Horace G. Burt, who resigned a year ago as president of the Union Pacific railway, is expected to return from the Orient in about four weeks and that he will go directly to New York and assume the management of the Grand Trunk railroad. The information, it is stated, comes in a letter from Mr. Burt himself. The same information relates that Mr. Burt has been tendered high executive positions by two other railways, one of them the Pennsylvania road. It also states that he is now on his way home, but by which route he will return is unknown.

Board of Health Is Busy.

Richfield Nov. 39.—The smailpox situation of this city is growing to a very alarming condition again. About two or three weeks ago it was thought by the health board to be entirely under control, but the last three days there has been about ten new cases in different parts of the city. All the new cases are quite bad, and one especially, Bob Ellicit, who has the most verious case. It is claimed by the quarantine physician that a person couldn't put a point of a pin on him without touching a pox mark. A day or two ago it was feared that it would prove fatal with him, but he has taken a change and, the chances are more favorable.

in Five Wards of the City.

The Democratic primaries of the city held in each of the five wards last night cominated the following candidates for the board of education of Ogden City: First ward, E. M. Conroy: Second ward, R. S. Joyce: Third ward, Thomas D. Dee; Fourth ward, Henry W. Gwilliam; Fifth ward, Charles J. Ross.

The primaries were very well attended. Entire harmony prevailed and the nomitation in each case was unanimous. There was an especially large attendance in the First ward, the primary being held at the city hall. There had been a rumor that a dark horse candidate was to be put up for the purpose of taking the nomination away from Coaroy, but his friends turned are seen. that a dark horse candidate was to be put up for the purpose of taking the nomination away from Coaroy, but his friends turned out in a mass. They crowded the assembly room of the city hall and were extended also in a line from the hallway up the stairs to the room. No opposition candidate was presented. In the Fifth ward G. H. Islaub, the present member, had declined the nomination and Mr. Ross was selected by a unanimous vote. In each of the other wards the present members of the board were re-

You know what I mean. There is no complaint from this side. We will always take our beatings with as good grace as we give it to others and I would be the last man to detract from the other man's victory. He won, and he won fairly all the way. He is better than I am tonight."

James Britt said: "Nelson is one grand little fighter and I realize that when I fight him in December I have got to put up a better fight than I ever did before in my life. I have had my eyes opened and any doubt that I had as to Nelson as a card is swept away. He is the one man that I want to fight. And I say that all the bickerings between Corbett and myself are over as far as I am concerned, after the game showing he made. I am willing, if he is, to shake hands and call off all past unfriendliness."

Policeman's Laugh Stops the Show. (Kansas City Journal.)

One Kansas City policeman cannot go to the theatres because he laughs so long and loud at every joke that he stops the and loud at every joke that he stops the performance. He was put on a beat where his duty took him inside a theatre for a few minutes every evening, and he asked to be changed, because he said the theatre people wouldn't let him stay inside, even when he bought a ticket. Before he was married he took his sweetheart to a show once, but at the end of the second act the manager touched him on the back and said he would have to get out. He had all the actors hugh-me.

"But I paid to see this show," protested the policeman. "If you put me out I shall insist on you giving my money back."

Many of Corbett's friends say they do not believe the champion was at his best Tuesday right, but they admit in the next breath that the Battler is certainly a wonderful fighter. One and all want to see Nelson go against Jimmy Britt, and when this comes about Nelson will have ten backers in Salt Lake to Britt's one, it is freely predicted here that Nelson will enter the ring in San Francisco, the favorite in spite of that native son feeling on the coast. "My friend from the ole co says the senator, "was fond of the 'cratur comforts warnst in a while, and some-times oftener. He was agin the law from the first, and one day I met him. He wore a rueful countenance and said to the size of the grass. Let the water be cold if you will. Some people prescribe hot water, but that isn't necessary. You may have washed your face already and relished the experience. You may have taken a cold plunge late the tus and delighted in the shock and its reaction. The brisk use of the toothbrush has left your mouth clean and the breath sweet. But you are dirty still.

Drink a glass of cold water and enjoy the sensation of being clean inside. All that is luxurious in the cold bath cleansing the outside is artificial. That which should prompt the glass of water after sleeping is natural.

Drink a glass of cold water in the name of cleanliness. It becomes one of the shortest and easiest of toilet duties. It is swallowed in a second, and in five minutes it has passed from the stomach, taking with it the clogging secretions of the alimentary tracks. It has left behind the stimulus that goes with cold water, and, by filling the arterial system to the normal, it puts a spur to the circulation that has grown sluggish in the night.
